Frequently Asked Questions 1/2

Q: What document types does the BL Draft Approval solution cover?

A: Both document types, Original Bills of Lading (OBL) and non-negotiable Sea Waybills (SWB), can be handled through the BL Draft Approval product.

Q: How can I access the web BL Draft Approval solution?

A: You can access your drafts two different ways

- 1) Through the link in the notification e-mail received from Hapag-Lloyd
- 2) Via our webpage www.hapag-Lloyd.com/en/landingpage/bl-draft-approval

Q: Who can see the PDF Draft document on the web?

A: Different security settings are applied to a user login based on the responsibilities they control as parties to a shipment, service contract and/ or Bill of Lading. The documents you see in the Hapag-Lloyd BL Draft Approval solution are based on these settings.

Q: How do I get a "receipt" for what I submitted to Hapag-Lloyd?

A: At the end of every transaction, be it an approval or sending a draft correction, you can download a PDF receipt which you can save, print or send to yourself via e-mail.

Frequently Asked Questions 2/2

Q: What do the different document status options mean in the Draft List?

A: There are several different document status a draft can be in

- 1. Open for review = new draft
- 2. Correction sent = a draft correction has been submitted to Hapag-Lloyd, awaiting a new draft
- 3. Released = the vessel has already sailed and the document has been released
- 4. Approval sent = your approval has been submitted and will be processes momentarily
- 5. Approved = this document has been approved

Q: I already approved the draft. Why was my approval reset?

A: When you are someone else submits a new draft correction, the approval is reset and the status switches back to "Correction sent".
